Guides will take you through the Roosevelt Hotel, the El Capitan Theater and the Egyptian Theater, pointing out what used to exist in many buildings during Hollywood's "heyday". Other highlights include the Masonic Temple and Grauman's Chinese Theatre, which features the handprints of the stars in the entrance courtyard. Petersen Automotive Museum & LACMA

Price: $ 79.50

The Miracle Mile, an area in the Mid-Wilshire region of Los Angeles, consists of a roughly mile-long stretch of road that is home to some of the best eateries, shopping areas and museums, including the Petersen Automotive Museum and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. Today you will be free to explore both of these fabulous museums at their leisure. At the Petersen, you will learn about the history of automobiles, technology, science and culture. The automobile put Los Angeles on the fast track into the 21st century, shaping how Angelinos live and travel. Preservation of significant automobiles has been a commitment of the Petersen Museum since 1932. You will walk through time as they enter the first floor, experiencing the authentic scenes, lifestyles and actual vehicles that marked the milestones of the motorcar and Los Angeles, complete with exciting sights and sounds around each historic corner. The second floor consists of galleries displaying innovative and rotating exhibits, Treasures of the Vault, Hollywood Star Cars, the Bruce Meyer Gallery and the Otis Chandler Gallery. LA has defiantly built itself a rich, lively culture; nowhere is that culture more thriving than at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. Known to locals simply as LACMA, it's the city's most popular museum; an absolute must on the destination list for visitors. The museum's staggering permanent collection of over 100,000 works is displayed throughout five buildings. Stunning pieces spanning time and artistic movements from across the world form one of the largest collections in the US, including masterpieces like 'Water Lilies,' by Monet, and a specially designed pavilion for Japanese art. Traveling exhibits keep the museum's offerings fresh and compelling.
